

Class – The Torah and You – Old Testament 1

Term –April 7, 2018 to May 5 2018

Instructor – Mark Wilson

Delivery – Saturdays 8:30 Am to 12:30 PM – SAC Building at Lancaster Bible College Campus

Course Description — God has revealed himself to us in the Old Testament and shows us how He is a God who hears, see and provides and what that means to us. Through habitual rebellion and feeble-mindedness of humankind God shows Himself by contrast who is a God of patience and grace. Studying the Old Testament changes the way we live and think. It is about all that God has done since the beginning of His creation. You will meet our sovereign God who created the universe, who controls history, and who will accomplish his plan in his time.

Here are just a few things we will study.

- > Welcome to "In the beginning" and, The Torah or as it is referred to sometimes "the Pentateuch".
- > Learn about the first five books of the Bible - who wrote them, how were they written, to whom were they written, what was the main message?
- > Is it relevant to us in today's world? If so, what is the message for us?
- > Join us on a journey through Biblical times and learn how these five fascinating pieces of Divine literature shape what is the Old Testament.

Course Prerequisites – Prior to the first class, Read "Introduction to the Old Testament" in the textbook "A Survey Of The Old Testament" February 5, 2009 Deluxe Addition, By Andrew E. Hill and John H. Walton

Course Objectives – As a result of this course the student will gain the following

1. Students will gain an understanding of significance of the Torah in Biblical history
2. Students will gain an understanding of its original authors and audience
3. Students will gain an understanding of its significance in our lives today
- 4.

Course Requirements - Students must attend at least 4 of the 5 classes to receive 2 CEU's

Assignments:

Though this is not a "PASS-FAIL" course students are expected to complete the reading assignments and study notes as required by the instructor.

Enroll at : <http://victorychurch.org/leadershipcollege/>