Class – The Prophecies of Daniel For Today The Book of Daniel

Term – April 14, 2018 – May 12, 2018

Instructor – Richard Pringle

Delivery – Lancaster Bible College Campus SAC Learning Center - Saturday's 8:30 AM to 12:30 PM for 5 weeks

Course Description — The Book of Daniel is a challenging and inspiring narrative of Daniel's life and prophecies. It offers practical lessons in integrity and revealing insight for understanding end-time events. It is also rich in history, detailing the Babylonian captivity of the Jewish people. But above all, Daniel proclaims a powerful message of HOPE in a sovereign God who is our Elohim. Come out and learn more about our great God through studying the book of Daniel!

Text Book "Be Resolute: Daniel" Determining God's Direction, Bible - A copy of the Bible in your preferred translation (not a Paraphrase).

Course Prerequisite(s) – Prior to the first class, students should read and study the first 6 chapters of the book of Daniel in their preferred translation not a "Paraphrase". In Wiersbe's Be Resolute, read the "Big Idea, The Word from the Author, and Chapter 1. It would be helpful to also read Matthew Chapter 24.

Course Objectives – As a result of this course the student will gain the following:

1. Students will gain and understanding of the history of the Babylonian captivity and its significance to Christianity then and now.
2. Students will gain a better understanding of how to read the text in light of end time events and its correlation to the books of Isaiah and Revelation.
3. Students will gain an understanding of Daniel's prophecies.
4. Students will have a better understanding of how the book of Daniel relates to the challenging times we are living in and how it applies to our lives.
5. Acquire a Biblical framework for putting the book od Daniel to work in everyday situations.
